

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE CREATION OF THE WORLD,

[The Philological Society is indebted to Mr. EDWIN NORRIS the editor of "The Cornish Drama" &c. for seeing this work through the press, and adding a few various readings &c. distinguished by his initials, — on account of Mr. Stockes's absence in India. F. J. F.]

THE CREATION OF THE WORLD.

THE text of the 'Creation', the Cornish drama now printed, was, like the poem of the 'Passion', which forms part of our last volume, thrust forth on the world by Mr. Davies Gilbert. In the case of the 'Creation', as in that of the 'Passion', Mr. Gilbert interpaged the Cornish text with an English version by John Keigwin.' So erroneous is Mr. Gilbert's book, in text as well as in translation, that no argument seems needed to justify the Philological Society in printing a corrected edition of the only important relic of Cornish literature which, since the late publication of the Passion, has been unattainable in a trustworthy form.

Mr. Edwin Norris, in his Cornish Drama, II, 441, good-naturedly observes that the average number of errors in Mr. Gilbert's edition of the 'Creation' is not more than twenty in a page. Two or three examples will give some notion of the nature, though not of the number, of these mistakes:—

Pp. 2, 3. Try Person yn idne Dewaes ow kys rayny a bys vickar "Three Persons in one Godhead Do reign of the world sovereign."

The same, rightly read and translated:—
Try person yn idn dewges
ow kys raynya bys vickan
"Three Persons in one Godhead, Reigning together for ever."

The title of Mr. Gilbert's edition of the 'Creation' is as follows:— The Creation of the World, with Noah's Flood; written in Cornish in the year 1611, by William Jordan; with an English translation, by John Keigwin. Edited by Davies Gilbert, F. R. S., F. S. A. &c. London, 1827. Pp. 4, 5. Can hasawe them danveys
Rage ou servia bys Vichar
"Songs unto me sending
For the serve me the world's Sovereign."

The same rightly read and translated:—
Canhasawe them danvenys
rage ow servia bys vickan
"Messengers sent to me to serve me for ever."

Pp. 6, 7. Them y fethow can, hag ow av
Hag y wrowgh ow aradowa.

"To me you shall be singing and answering
And doing my commands."

The same rightly read and translated:—
Them y fethow canhagowe
hag y wrewgh ow aradowe
"To me ye [the Angels] shall be messengers,
And ye shall do my commands."

Pp. 66, 67. May moyghen y lavyerhy

Der weyll o gorhemen trogha

"But most of her labour shall be.

By gripings I shall command to cut;"

The same rightly read and translated:—
May myghea y lavyer hy der weyll ow gorhemen troghe.

"Let her travail increase

Through breaking my command." Genesis iii. (16.)

The division of the lines in the printed copy is also marvellously inaccurate.

Four copies of the present drama are known. A. (from which the text now printed has been taken) is the oldest; it is a paper MS., in small folio, dated Aug. 12°, 1611, preserved in the Bodleian library, and marked N. 219. B. is a copy of A. contained in the first volume of a quarto paper MS. lately presented by Mr. Ley of Bosahan to the Bodleian. C. is in the British Museum, Harleian, N. 1867. It appears from a note in Welsh at the end that Lhuyd collated this copy with A. in 1702. D. is preserved in a paper folio MS. lately in the possession of Mr. Hotten of Piccadilly, and containing also a copy of the 'Passion'.

The language of the mystery now printed differs from that of the 'Passion' and of the drama published by Mr. Norris chiefly in the following respects:—

- 1°. The vowel e has often become a, as in arna 'until' = erna: carenga 'love' for kerenge, kerense, tha 'to' for 'the', plag 'fold' 1614 = plek, resacke 'a running' 1828, for resek = redeg.
- 2°. th and gh (ch), in inlant and auslant, have become mute, and are consequently interchanged. Thus bedna 'blessing' 1541, for bennath, a vy 'is' 4, for a vyth, and hunythe 2246 for huny: bean 'little' 118, for beghan: gh is put for th in segh 'arrow' 1573, and th for gh in war-lerth 'after' 1795 marth 'horse' 406, peth 'sin' 586, gwreth-tye 'housewife' 942, kerth 'oats' 1066, gorthell 'ark' 2254.
- 3°. m (mm) has become bm: thus lebmyn 'now' 70, 2239, 2489, thybma 'to me' 570, 2495: kybmar 'take' 692, mabm 'mother' 1203, 1910, a lebma 'hence' 1208, 2079, kebmys 'so many' 1220, 1350, 2145 = kybmys 1284, cabm 'crooked' 1603, 2501, hebma 'this' 2193: obma 'here' 2523.
- 4°. n (nn) has become dn: thus idn 'one' 6 = udn 1752, 2539, radn 'part' 2356, gwadn 'weak' 1275, 1679, 2479, lodn 'bullock' 1361, 2365, badna 'drop' 1364, pedn 'head' 182, 916, 1019, 1597, defednys 'forbidden' 1803, blethydnyow 'years' 2404, skydnya 'to descend' (skydn 2369, skydnys, 2305) 2207, bedna 'blessing' 1541, hedna 'that' 2447, 2491, 2509.
- 5°. The corruption of s into g soft (as in George) is more frequently met with: thus canhagowe 'messengers' 67, drengys 'Trinity' 126, 2238, 2007 blonagath = voluntas, 96, carenga 'love' 359, 847, 1754 = carensa 840, sallugye 'to salute' 721 = salugy 1776, sengys 'held', 438, 2236 = synges 2050, thagye 'to thee' 2349, cregye 'to believe' 1602, pegy = petere 2206. For this soft g, we find j (nynjew 'is not' 263) and dg (devydgyow 'sheep' 1070, pydgyaf 'I desire' 1364,) 1509, 1670, marrudgyan 'marvels' 1764, 2123 (= marodgyan 1803, 1897, and marogyan 1875) crydgyans 'belief' 2316.
 - 6°. Matters of spelling rather than of language are, a. the frequent occurrence of an inorganic mute e at the end of a word (e. g. have mabe 'and my son' 9, tase 'father' 12, neve 'heaven' 15, bothe 'desire' 16, gwreage 'woman' 834), b. the use of i for u (idn 6 'one' = un 10) and u for i (un, 1909, 'in') the using ae to express a (taes): the using ea to express ê: thus eall 'angel' 47, wheag 'sweet' 95 = wheake 759, dean 'man' 254, 417, teake 'fair' 412, gwreag 'woman' 877 = gwreage 834, bearn 'grief' 1092, steare 'star' 102, gear 'word' 164, 896 = geare 211, seath 'sit' 66 = seathe, 54, and c. the using of oo or oe to express 6: (e. g. oole 'weep' 2304, nootha 'nakedness' 969, boes 'to be').

- 7°. Pronominal infixation is less frequent: e. g. 'I am named' is me ew henwis 1. 12 instead of y-m gyhwyr as in the corresponding passage, O. 1. So dro hy 'bring it' 1488, my wrug 'made me' 1766.
- 8°. Lastly, loanwords from the English occur in far greater number.

Passing from the language to the subject matter we may remark that the author imitates and often copies the ordinale called 'Origo Mundi', which stands first in Mr. Norris's Cornish Drama. Some parts, however, are his own; for example the fall of Lucifer and his angels, Cain's death, Enoch's translation, Seth's prophecy and erection of the pillars. Who the author was remains uncertain. The William Jordan mentioned at the end may well have been only the transcriber, and the occurrence in the stage-directions of such forms as sortis, beastis, garmentis, every ch-on 'every one' and car[i]eth 'they carry' seems to indicate a date prior to 1611, when Jordan completed his manuscript. The author's mention of limbo, too, may tend to shew that the play was composed before the Reformation.

The text has been transcribed for press and the translation and notes written, during a voyage to India, apart from books and philological friends. This circumstance will, I trust, induce Celtic scholars to deal leniently with the errors and defects which they will probably find in the following pages.

And it shall not be so: I will answer thee that. 265 The place sure enough from him I will keep yet, by my loyalty, And from thee likewise.

Thou shalt see me strong here Yet, full proud (?)

The word trebytchya which the Translator has left doubtful, is clearly the French trebucher, and it is used in that sense at line 1582; the meaning may be 'proud falling being', though it seems perhaps somewhat forced. E. N.

Half the angels with me
They are agreed, Sir,
To maintain me in spite of thee,
As thou seest.

I will not go:

I say you so,

This will not be,
Believe me.

See For I shall... (?)

Certainly above every one

That was ever yet formed.

THE FATHER

Be silent, Lucifer accursed,
In heart as thou art proud,
For straightway thou shalt go to pains
Without redemption, believe me,
Surely believe me.

All thy splendour and beauty
Shall soon turn to thee to ugliness
And very awful villainy.

290

Michael, prince of my chivalry,
And the angels of the nine orders
This rebellion quickly
To the ground with it; girl and boy,
To Hell, an ugly dwelling;

There let them dwell in pains, And great griefs always, Very certainly for ever.

L. 280. Vinsens must be the borrowed Latin vincens; me a will then be the verb 'to go'. 'I go a conqueror'. See Juno's 'divum incedo regina' Virgil, Aen. i. E. N.

Shame there is to me to hear thee, Believing those words.

Why — I will tell to thee

Did God give that charge?

By thee if it were tasted

As wise thou wouldst be

In every point surely as He.

The Father, He would not surely

That any man should be so wise

(As) to know of evil and good;

Therefore, goodwife, Eve,

With thee I will not flatter,

Nor will I use a lie.

Listen thou to me

If thou wouldst be exalted,

Or else certainly for ever

Ye shall be like children:

Or thou hast assented to it, thou hearest,

Gentle Eve.

Yea, yea, I hear,

And He gave to me a charge so strait
That I should have pain and griefs
If I should break a jot

His commandment given to us;
Perhaps in Hell for ever
We shall have our dwelling
If His wish be not followed.

SERPENT

Be silent, be silent, Eve, thou art a fool:
Thou wilt not hearken to good.
I will go: for it thou shalt weep
My counsel if thou dost deny.
I am not contented with thee.

LAMECH

Peace I say! hearken ye round about
To me (as) many as are here!
Lamech is my name:
Son am I — believe ye me —
To Methuselah forsooth.

Of Cain, Adam's son, am I
Raised, the seventh degree.
A great lord held in proof;
There is not full surely living
Any one that honours me as he ought.

An evil polat am I, by my loyalty:

Not much with a good hand do I,
But always a-coercing

The weak folk if I can —

My fancy is that.

Yet though my grandfather Cain is

A very bad man enough accounted,
I take it in disdain
If I be not proved

Yet much worse.

More than one wife is there to me
According to my pleasure to do with them;
And surely I am the first
That ever yet had two wives.

1455 And maids plenty enough
Are to me — they are not dainty —
I find them when I wish,
I spare not of them
Especially (?) one who may be fair.

Who is the devil? what shall be done? I know not on my soul, Nor yet hath help been got.

The pleasure that is to me in (the) world Is to shoot with a bow.
I will go full speedily
To the forest quickly from hence,
And slay the strange beasts.

1470 What is (the) flesh of those beasts,

Nor of beast nor bullock in (the) world,

We never did taste,

Nor yet (is) flesh by us eaten,

Nor wine do we use a drop.

1475 Other victual to us there is,
And needments enough to live:
With skins of those beasts
I shall make for myself raiment,
As did my grandsires.

In (the) desert, among beasts,
He is still living.

Because God the Father was angry
He is cast into great mischief,

1485 For a wicked polat as he is,

And filled with curses.

My servant, come thou out here,
And my bow bring thou it with thee:

Wild beasts to espy,
And I shall with my arrows
Slay a part of them.

You see, to great mischief.

Nor yet of the father's curse

Have I repentance at all in (the) world.

Ye see me overgrown
I am altogether with hair:
I do not desire to be seen
1510 By a son of man in this world alive,
Because of my being accursed.

And my father Adam his curse
Hath gone with me, and his great anger:
Because of that in any place
I cannot find rest —
A son of curses I am made.

My folly is so great,
And my heart also very proud,
I will not of the Father
Seek mercy surely without doubt,
Though I have not joy.

Fear is to me of every man
By him to be killed;
But the Father God Himself
1530 His mark on me hath set
Rightly with his own hands —
Ye all see it —

And hath spoken thus;
That no man shall be slaying me,
On pain of His loyal displeasure.

And he that shall slay me, Seven times he shall pay, He said, with a very strong charge.

But still notwithstanding that promise
1540 Greatly am I a-fearing
His blessing to me He will not (give).

Therefore on my soul,

I will go to hide

In some bush, though it be a grief for me.

ANGEL

1805 Now Seth, tell to me
What thou seest within:
Do not hide one thing.

SETH

I see surely a tree,
And a serpent in it a-top
Dead dry she seemed.

ANGEL

This is the same tree
Which heretofore caused thy father and mother
To eat the apple of the sorrow,
Which was forbidden with a great charge
By the mouth of the best Father.

And that serpent which thou seest
Is that very serpent
Which the devil did enter
Into it, to tempt
Thy mother Eve.

Therethrough God was angry

And me he ordered

To chase them from thence —

Say what thou seest more.

I see him in great pain,

And in trouble, so that there is woe to him.

And in (the) top of the same tree

I see a sweet maiden,

A-sitting very certainly,

And in her bosom a fair child,

As seemeth to me so.

ANGEL

I say to thee clearly,

That is truly called,

It is the Tree of Life:

I will reach part of the fruits,

And will bring part of them,

An apple full great.

1845 See, here are three kernels,

Which have come from this apple:

Take them and put (them) up,

In some place to hide (?),

And carry them with thee to thy father.

1850 When shall be (the) end of his days,
And (he is) in earth to be buried,
Put a kernel into his mouth,

Let them be put in his two nostrils.

Of years clear passed,
Then let him look eagerly
After oil of mercy always,
And a Saviour indeed
Shall bring him out of pains.

Tell thy father so,
And to it he can trust,
As is appointed.

1870 Hasten quickly hence:
My blessing to thee!

SETH

Much thanks to you, God's Angel,
A-shewing me everything.
To my dear father all as it is
I will surely teach it,
As the wonders are great.

I will go hence, In (the) name of God above, Home to Adam my father.

Welcome art thou, Seth, with me:
What news are with thee?
If the Oil of Mercy is Brought by thee here to thy father,
Very glad shall I be.

SETH

1890 It is not yet, my father, forsooth, I tell to you as behoves, The truth of every thing.

When the time shall come plainly
Of five thousand and five hundred years,
The Oil of Mercy then
Shall be found.

In Paradise I saw
Divers marvels without doubt:
Especially a glorious tree,
Reaching aloft full stoutly,
Even to heaven, I surely believe.

And its roots to the earth below
Even to hell reaching,
And there right truly without fail
Was in great trouble
My brother Cain in pains.

Now in (the) top of the fair tree
Was a sweet virgin,
And her child full seemly swaddled
In her bosom, wondrous desirably.

 I have not life longer:
 Death is come:
 He will not here leave me
 To live here one space.

1970 I see him now with a spear
Ready to pierce me (on) every side:
There is no escape from him:
The time is a desire with me.

I have long served the world:

Since I was first formed

Nine hundred years I am, I believe,

And thirty reckoned;

So that it is time to go from hence.

Children have I born

Of Eve my spouse many;

Thirty-two born

Of sons — this is true —

Without my son Cain and Abel.

Also thirty-two

I have had, without deceit or guile,

From (the) beginning of this world.

FATHER IN HEAVEN

Noah, the world is so filled

Now with wickedness,

That there is an end come
In it of flesh of every kind;

With sin full truly it is fetid.

I can spare no more

Without doing death of long duration,
On all people except thee,
And thy wife and thy children,
And the property that belongs to thee.

Therefore hasten, go, make

2255 An ark of planks planed,
And in it many dwellings,
Rooms they shall be named.

Without and within well,
With pitch let it be made staunch;

2260 And three bundred cubits good
The vessel shall be in length.

And half a hundred cubits
Also thou shalt make in breadth,
And the height I will

That it be made thirty.
On (the) side behind, a door
Thou shalt make — a port it shall be called:
Joists through it thou shalt place
Across, that it be not shut.

- L. 7. kys-raynya 'to reign together' re-occurs infra 1961. So kys-vewa 'to live together' 1314. The prefix kys- = 0. Corn. cet- (chetva gl. conventus vel conventio, Vocab.), W. cyd. Bys-vickan = Bret. bizvikenn.

- L. 14. skon 'forthwith' = NHG. schon: rase seems a blunder for grase, for ow does not cause vocalic infection. But ow ras occurs in R. 1584.
- L. 20. skavall from Lat. scabellum like scauel in the Vocab.
- L. 29. canhasawe pl. of cannas 'messenger' = W. cennad.

- L. 294. mergh (pl. mirhas infra, 1985) = W. merch, Lith. mergà, mergéle.
 Mawe = Ir. mug gen. moga, Goth. magus. Hence mowes 'girl' D. 1877, pl. mowyssye infra, 1455; and perhaps in l. 295 we should read moz = moos 1390.
- L. 320. wanothans better wonethans (gonethans). But why the vocalic infection of the initial g found in goneth 432 &c.?
- L. 321. Note the prosthetic y in yef 'he' and ye 'his' l. 323, 'its' 1088.

Similarly fynten woys P. 242, 2 'a fountain of blood' (goys), kymmys ras 'such a quantity of graces' (gras) O. 1745. So a fem. iâ-stem like myl (= Ir. mile) 'thousand', vocalically infects the governed substantive: myl woly 'a thousand of wounds' (goly), R. 998, myl vyl 'a thousand of

- thousands' R. 142, myl vap mam 'a thousand of sons (map) of mothers' O. 324. So in Irish: mile chemenn 'a thousand of paces' Southampton Psalter, University Library, Cambridge. The same phenomenon occurs in Breton: poan benn 'a pain of (the) head' (penn).

The apparently prosthetic n also occurs in P. 206, 3: dhen n-edhyn 'to the birds' and P. 134, 3: dhen n-empynnyon 'to the brains'. It appears to correspond with the second n (d) of the O.
